Professional Experience

Freelance Web Developer | (Mar 2025 – Present)

- Project: Flask – Patient Management System: Developed a Flask web application integrated with Google Sheets/Forms and a Neon PostgreSQL database to manage the workflow of patients referred by other doctors. The system organizes the entire process into stages (evaluation, authorization, procedure, and follow-up), with synchronized CRUD and a responsive interface. This solution optimizes the medical routine by centralizing data, reducing spreadsheet rework, and facilitating clinical follow-up, generating greater efficiency and accuracy in patient care.
